

The 2026 Blue Envelope Appeal

BE_GEN26-001

Dear Brother,

Charitable work is at the heart of the Masonic Fraternity. When Masons see a need, they don't wait for someone else to meet it. From our earliest days, that work has been done quietly and without fanfare, but its impact has been felt throughout our Jurisdiction and beyond. This generosity in action continues to define our Brotherhood today.

For more than seven decades, Scottish Rite Masons have answered that call through the Blue Envelope Appeal. Their gifts have supported our charitable work and helped care for our Brothers, their families, and our communities. We invite you to be part of this tradition.

When you give to the Blue Envelope Appeal, you help children with dyslexia gain the skills and confidence to become stronger readers through the Children's Dyslexia Centers. You open doors to higher education for deserving students through the Leon M. Abbott Scholarship Fund. You provide relief to Brothers and their families in times of crisis through the Grand Almoner's Fund, and you help preserve and share the history of our Fraternity and our nation through the Scottish Rite Masonic Museum & Library.

Your gift reaches your own Valley, too. Each Blue Envelope contribution helps your Valley receive Valley of Excellence credit and impacts your Valley's Abbott Scholarship allocation, turning your support into educational opportunity for deserving students in your community.

Will you join this tradition with your Brothers and put your generosity into action with a gift to this year's Blue Envelope Appeal?

Your gift, no matter the amount, sustains the charitable work that has distinguished Scottish Rite Masons for generations and changes what is possible for those who need it most.

Sincerely,

Walter F. Wheeler, 33°
